

Lord Mayor of Londontown Takes Office : Holiday Shoppers : Collapsed Delaware Bulkhead

Central News.
SIR EDWARD COOPER, London's new lord mayor, who was recently installed in office with the gala ceremonies and parade of pre-war days.

Central News.
THE LEAGUE OF ARTS CHOIR singing "Men of Harlech," the famous Welsh song, on the steps of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, during the new mayor's inauguration procession.

Ledger Photo Service.
HAPPILY HEEDING the December admonition to do the Christmas shopping early.

Central News.
BRITANNIA and her trident—apparently the lady doesn't rule the steed, a groom seems necessary to guide the equestrienne over the lord mayor of London's parade route.

H. S. Hood.
CYNTHIA C. SHALLCROSS and Robert T. Fox in the dramatic entertainment of the Old Pupils' Association of Friends' Central School at the Bellevue-Stratford.

Central News.
GENERAL DENIKIN, whose entire line north-east and east of Kiev is reported in retreat before Bolshevik forces.

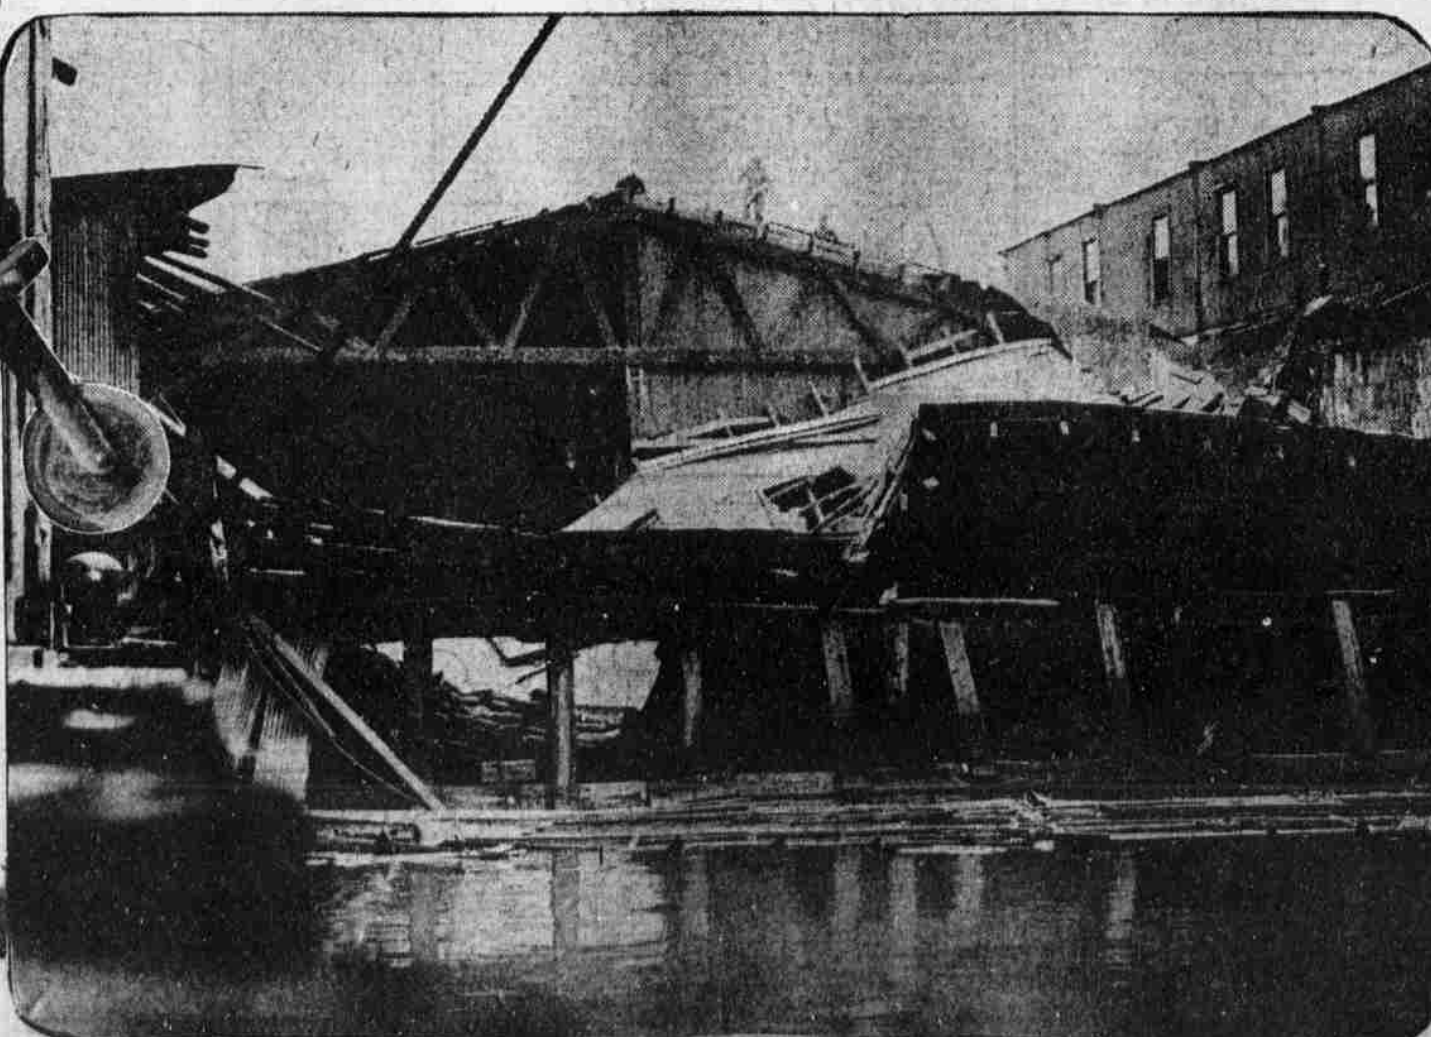

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS LUCY VOTTA, 2339 South Sixteenth Street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

Ledger Photo Service.
STOP and hardware transaction DETACHE in the winter hat, TOMMY HODGINS, assistant to Santa Claus. The holiday package was a familiar sight as December 25 looms ahead.

Ledger Photo Service.
THE COLLAPSED bulkhead between Piers 1 and 2, North Wharves, which let 600 barrels of imported mackerel and 3000 forty-pound bags of flour into the Delaware river. Two thousand bags of flour are said to have been recovered, the rest being a complete loss. The mackerel can be salvaged, according to the owners of the property.